REVISED RECRUITMENT SYSTEM WITH ONLINE
REGISTRATION

1. The recruitment process for Indian Army has been changed from "Open Rally System" to "On-line Registration Application Based System" with immediate effect, hence a need to educate all the desirous candidates through wide publicity.
2. The New System involves the following:-
 - (a) Creation of e-mail ID by the candidate.
 - (b) The candidate would have to get himself registered in the Indian Army Web Site www.joinindianarmy.nic.in any time of the year (he should actually do it immediately). The on-line procedure for the same is attached as Appendix.
 - (c) 60 days prior to the tests, the same individual should again fill up the "on-line application". This filling of application will remain open for 45 days and would close 15 days prior to the date of test.
 - (d) The individual will get his admit card on-line.
 - (e) Thereafter, his physical test, physical measurement and medical test will be carried out on the date, time and place given in the Admit Card.
 - (f) Successful candidates will then have to appear for a written test at a later date, the details (date, time and place) of which will be intimated to them later (either same day or intimation could be given to them online).
 - (g) Candidates who clear the written examination and come in merit will be enrolled into the Army after detailed verification of their documents.
